For Immediate Release

Dundalk No Name Club establishment

The No Name Club is delighted to report it is now at an advanced stage in the formation of a club in Dundalk, with crucial roles on its adult committee having been filled.

Following on from a second successful public meeting in the town on Monday January 10th, local man and former No Name Club host* Niall Bailey has been appointed Chairman of the club and another local, Christina King, has been appointed Secretary.

Great progress has been made in the establishment of the club and we are still appealing to local people who are interested in getting involved with it to get in touch or attend its next scheduled meeting, at which all are welcome.

The meeting will take place on Wednesday January 19th at Dowdallshill Gaelic Football Club at 8pm. Induction training will be provided at the meeting by Joan Troy, No Name Club Training Officer and also attending will be Anthony McCormack, No Name Club Development Manager. Anyone with any queries can contact Anthony at 087 2865073.

*Hosts and Hostesses are teenage members of No Name Clubs who work with adult committees to deliver the services that are offered to teenagers by No Name Clubs in communities across Ireland. Hosts and Hostesses are supported in developing their leadership and confidence skills during their membership of the No Name Club.

Press release issued by Michael McGlynn, Communications Officer with No Name Club. For further information you can contact him at 045 435444 or 087 9082970.

Note for the Editor

No Name Club is a National Voluntary Youth Organisation founded in 1978 and has 40+ clubs throughout the country. No Name Clubs are run by and for young people aged 15 years + who come together in a safe and lively environment where there's fun, friendship and enjoyment without the pressure of alcohol or other drugs. No Name Clubs were founded to provide an alternative to pub culture for young people in Ireland. They demonstrate a lifestyle in which the use of alcohol or drugs is seen as unnecessary to the enjoyment of a happy, cheerful and fulfilling social life for young people. Over the last 30 years, thousands of young people have valued their involvement in a programme of activities that allow them to enjoy themselves socially with their peers in a safe and friendly environment, free from the dangers and influences of alcohol and drugs. At present there are over 15,000 young people involved with No Name Clubs throughout the country.
