No Name Club & RSA Road Safety Awareness Partnership

The Road Safety Authority (RSA) and the No Name Club have joined forces with a view to engaging young people (15-18 yr olds) to raise awareness, knowledge, skills and values for themselves and other young people in relation to road safety. This will create a foundation for the development of safe road users now and into the future.

The RSA will form a partnership with the No Name Club for the coming year i.e. until the National Youth Awards 2011. There will be a series of events and competitions organised throughout the year which will introduce young people to the message and campaigns of the RSA.
